

Central Region Student Council Conference

March 30, 2012

Erskine Academy

Leaders are the people who make the world go 'round. As student council members, you are all the great leaders of your school, responsible for setting good examples, making activities run smoothly, and, of course, bringing the fun to your school by showing your classmates what school spirit is all about! This March, we would like to invite you to take part in the Central Region Student Council Conference. Here, you will meet new people, share your ideas, and go back to your school able to make it even better with new leadership skills! So come join the fun, and Spring into Leadership!

Registration is 8:00-8:45am – Dismissal is at 12:00

Lunch will be included. Please return the form below as soon as possible.
